ART & GRAPHIC DESIGN & ARCHITECTURE FASHION FOC

by Cristina Morozzi

From a conversation between the Roman jeweller Fabio Salini with Fernando and Humberto Campana was born a jewellery collection for the Roman Gallery O. This collection reproduces on a small-scale and with

With the jewellery series Dangerous Luxury the Campana brothers draw once again on Brazilian culture, revealing their special interpretation of luxury, the ability to translate materials and ethnic Brazilian motifs into precious global artifacts.

precious materials the expressive alphabet of the Brazilian brothers. The series of eight pieces, two necklaces, two bracelets, three pairs of earrings and a head ornament, plays on the audacious mix of poor natural materials such as bamboo, capim dourado (Syngonanthus nitens), a rare golden Brazilian grass on the verge of extinction, and noble materials, such as rose gold and brown diamonds.
